NALC comings and goings

President Fredric V. Rolando has announced the following NALC personnel changes:

◆ Nancy Quick, a 28-year letter carrier and a former president of the South Carolina State Association, is retiring as regional administrative assistant for Region 9 after almost 10 years in that role. President Rolando has appointed Roswell, GA Branch 4862 member Paul Barner to fill the vacancy, effective Feb. 27.

Barner

Barner, an Army veteran and a 2007 graduate of the NALC Leadership Academy who has been a letter carrier since 1987, has served his branch as a shop steward, treasurer and trustee. He also has held a position on the Georgia State Association's executive board.

"Nancy's knowledge, especially in OWCP, has served to help hundreds of our members, and we wish Nancy the best in her retirement," Region 9 National Business Agent Judy Willoughby said. "And Paul's leadership, contract knowledge and strong work ethic will be great assets to our team, the members in Region 9 and the NALC."

◆ President Rolando also has appointed Orlando Gonzalez, a member of New York City Branch 36, as an RAA for Region 15. The appointment is effective March 5.

Gonzalez is a 15-year letter carrier and a 2011 graduate of the Leadership Academy. He served Branch 36 as a shop steward, Formal A representative and editor of the branch newsletter, and he also was a Customer Connect district coordinator.

"Orlando has excelled at every task I have assigned him," Region 15 NBA Larry Cirelli said. "He is personable, intelligent and dedicated to the NALC, and he will be a great asset to Region 15."

Gonzalez

◆ Contract Administration Unit member Robert Williams retired from the NALC in February following his election as president of Washington, DC Branch 142. Williams, a letter carrier since 1973, first came to NALC Headquarters in 1997 to work in the union's retirement department, and later moved into the CAU.

◆ CAU staffer Alan Apfelbaum, a 34-year letter carrier and member of Santa Clara, CA Branch 1427, also retired in February. Before his appointment to the CAU in 2001, Apfelbaum had served 11 years as an RAA for Region 1.

◆ Stephen DeMatteo, a research analyst at Headquarters since 2008, left the NALC in January to take on a role as deputy head of post and logistics at the Union Network International's home office in Nyon, Switzerland. There, DeMatteo will coordinate workshops and training exercises designed to help UNI's affiliate unions, including the NALC, learn how to influence political and regulatory decision-makers worldwide. ✉
