

The COLCPE starters

Our annual tribute to COLCPE supporters begins with those who sustain the union's political action fund with steady, reliable donations through automatic deductions from their paycheck, annuity or a bank account.

Not only is automatic deduction easy for donors, it makes budgeting easier for COLCPE. Automatic deductions, including many at the "Gimme 5" level of $5 per pay period or higher, make it easier to predict the long-term resources available to COLCPE and sharpen its budget choices. Candidates for office who rely on COLCPE for help know that we can be with them when they need our assistance with get-out-the-vote efforts like precinct walks or manning phone banks.

Many letter carriers who work for AFL-CIO political campaigns sport T-shirts bought by COLCPE that proclaim their membership in the NALC, and they serve as a powerful reminder that letter carriers are working hard for the candidates and the interests of their fellow union members, standing up for the middle class, decent wages and benefits and collective-bargaining rights.

Members who make both automatic deductions and separate, occasional donations will find their names listed only in this section, though their donation total will reflect their total contributions in 2012.

This section lists active and retired members who made donations through payroll deduction or through automatic deductions from an annuity or bank account in 2012.

If you aren't already making automatic deductions to COLCPE, please see page XXXX for instructions on how to sign up to support COLCPE the easiest way possible.
