

Nalcrest Update

From the Trustees

“Where everybody knows your name.” That phrase doesn’t just apply to the television show “Cheers”; it also represents the feeling you get from living at Nalcrest. (You also might meet Norm, Sam and Cliff.)

When you live at Nalcrest, you reside in a close-knit community. Folks in the apartment groupings become friends and look after each other. Comfort and security come from knowing that if someone hasn’t been seen for a couple of days, a neighbor will check to see if all is well.

Community is when 10 a.m. comes around and there is the daily gathering at the post office to pick up the mail. Friends and soon-to-be friends meet, talk, laugh and pass along the latest news.

The amenities at Nalcrest have often been mentioned, but behind the activity is another opportunity to interact with your friends. The message here is that there is a strong sense of being safe, being secure, and being in a place “where everybody knows your name.” Nalcrest isn’t just a place to retire; it is a place to call home.

So, if the new year holds the promise of imminent retirement, or if that event is still some time away, you really ought to schedule a visit to Nalcrest to see why this could be your new home.

All of the Nalcrest trustees wish for you and yours a very healthy, happy new year.

Tom Young
